

THE MILL AT ELSTEAD

THE MILL AT ELSTEAD

Located in the heart of the Surrey countryside, in an 'Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty'. The Mill at Elstead is steeped in history dating back to 1647, complete with wall markings from WWII patients and a working water wheel. The venue boasts multiple event spaces for all occasions, including two licensed rooms to host wedding ceremonies.

FOOD

Our talented kitchen team combine classic, hearty, comfort food and refined restaurant dishes, changing on a regular basis to make the most of fresh seasonal produce. On our menus, you'll find rustic main dishes, delicious daily specials and seasonal favourites.

DRINKS

Our bar provides an extensive selection of drinks to cater to a wide range of tastes. We have a diverse wine list, hand-picked by our sommelier, which accommodates a variety of grapes and regions. Our beers are worldwide and kept to the highest standard.

HOW TO BOOK

With a dedicated Events Team on site, we are here with you throughout the entire planning process. We have an extensive range of private dining menus, desirable event spaces and a carefully selected wine list to create an occasion that your guests will be talking about for years to come.

THE CEREMONY ROOM

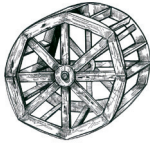

The most versatile of the Cygnet Suite rooms, it transforms easily from a ceremony venue, into a dining room and then to a dance floor.

Sunkissed wooden beams frame the room and mismatched chairs form uniform lines, leaving space to walk the aisle. The Ceremony Room is the perfect space for a wedding ceremony for up to 65 guests.

You can hire the room just for the ceremony. However, as part of the entire Cygnet Suite, the room breaks down to a dance floor for all of your guests to occupy. The blank canvas of the curtains allow the perfect backdrop for any band or DJ.

THE DINING ROOM & MEZZANINE

Our delicious Dining Room provides seating for up to 65 people, plus the additional Mezzanine above is suitable for up to 35.

Wooden rustic style tables, paired with the mismatched wooden chairs, the room creates it's own décor.

Historical wall etchings are displayed on the Mezzanine which are sketches from a WWII soldier during the Mill's time as a hospital.

THE CYGNET BAR

The Cygnet Bar really is our little gem, hidden up on the first floor and conveniently out of the way of the main bar & restaurant.

The space boasts its own bar and is recommended for an informal standing party.

Favoured by locals for its quirky yet traditional style, suitable for any occasion. The bar is laden with brass light fittings with exposed bulbs, high stools and low beams.

THE CYGNET SUITE

The Cygnet Suite is made up of four event spaces, each with it's own purpose. The suite includes a licensed Ceremony Room, Dining Room, Bar and Mezzanine.

Exposed wooden beams and the mismatched furniture gives a relaxed, rustic character which is perfectly on trend.

This space is so cleverly self-contained that it provides your wedding or occasion with the privacy it deserves.

You will have access to our PA system, connected to speakers in each room, with the freedom to play your own music.

THE MEETING ROOM

The Meeting Room beams with natural light and has the best views in the venue.

The room is tucked away on the top floor, complete with its own toilets, flipcharts, giant projector and screen.

These impressive conference facilities suit meetings for up to 20 delegates and the space can be offered from 8am.

Please ask about our day delegate rates upon booking.

THE CROMWELL ROOM & SNUG

Ironically named after Oliver Cromwell's troops as they burnt down the original mill, the building was rebuilt in 1647 and still stands today.

The room offers distinct rustic furniture and working Inglenook fireplaces, making it a beautifully cosy setting for an intimate event. Plus the additional snug presenting an optimal spot for an evening reception or daytime refreshments.

The room is wheelchair accessible through your very own side door.

While the Cromwell room is licensed for wedding ceremonies for up to 30 guests, it is also a great space for any occasion including baby showers, engagements, birthdays and other celebrations.
